Active Shooter Incidents “Back to the Basics”

Managing the First 30 Minutes of Mass

Thursday, July 13th, 2023. TWO SESSIONS

AM Session from 0800 to 1200 and PM Session from 1300 to 1700.

Register: Click on the link below and select AM or PM session. Must have agency I.D./credentials to register and attend.

AM Session - Training, Exercise & Response Management System - (ncem.gov)

PM Session - Training, Exercise & Response Management System - (ncem.gov)

Overview: Considering the increasing number of high-profile active shooter/active assailant incidents across the United States this training is being made available to all first responders. Provides public safety responders and planners an overview of what is required to successfully manage the first critical 30 minutes of a multi-agency response to a chaotic, fast-moving, and high-profile incident. The rapid and successful implementation of a strong Incident Command System (ICS) and Unified Command (UC) are recognized as critical tools in helping responders manage this incident in your community. Attendance: Must be current members of Law Enforcement, Fire Service, EMS, E911 and Emergency Management. Must have agency I.D./credentials to register and attend.

Leadership, Accountability, Culture, Knowledge (LACK)

Thursday, June 8, 2023 6:30 p.m.

168 Dedication Drive, Fayetteville, NC 28306

Hosted by Pearce's Mill Fire Department and Sponsored by the Office of the State Fire Marshal

This fire officer leadership class begins with the devastating impact of an LODD and the surprising fact that many contributing factors to LODDs result from the fire service culture, the reinforcement of unsafe behaviors, and breakdowns in safety priorities.
